IMPORTANT NOTE REGARDING THE PLAN'S RIGHTS OF RECOVERY

I hereby agree to refund any monies due to the Boilermakers' National Health Plan (Canada) as a result of payment of pension or disability benefits from any source in accordance with the terms of the Plan Text. I agree to repay such amounts immediately after I am notified of an overpayment.

A "third party" is your own and any other home or motor vehicle, as well as any individual, business, insurer or government agency against whom you may be entitled to claim for loss of income arising from your disability. The Plan reserves the right to recover amounts it has paid to you from a third party. If you are entitled, as a result of the incident which caused or contributed to your disability, to recover compensation for loss of income from a third party, the Plan will be entitled to recover up to the total amount of benefits paid or payable to you by the Plan. You will be required to provide full disclosure about the recovery or attempted recovery. In the event that you provide proof to the Plan Administration Office that you have not recovered full compensation for loss of income, the Plan shall determine the proportion of damages actually recovered and share pro rata in that amount.

The Plan may deem a settlement to be future income.

You should advise your legal counsel of the Plan's right of recovery, and you should advise the Plan Administration Office of any proposed settlement before accepting it. Should you elect to settle the matter prior to judicial determination, you should be aware that the sum reached in the settlement will be deemed to be full compensation for your loss of income, and the Plan's right of recovery will apply. The term 'compensation' includes any lump sum or periodic payments which you receive or are entitled to receive on account of past, present or future loss of income.
